

Michael Stevens Biographical Sketch

Michael Stevens is Wisconsin State Historian Emeritus. Stevens retired from the Wisconsin Historical Society in 2013. He holds a Ph.D. in history from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and has published 15 books and more than 30 articles. Since his retirement, Stevens has continued to research and write history, taught at Marquette University as a visiting history professor, serves on the Fitchburg Landmarks Commission, and has served on federal history commissions and committees. His most recent book, The Making of Pioneer Wisconsin: Voices of Early Settlers, was published by the Wisconsin Historical Society Press in October 2018.